DUTCHLAND CUTLERY SHOW

June 1 & 2 2007

LEESPORT FARMER'S MARKET- LEESPORT, PA

Dear Friends,

Enclosed you will find several flyers of interest, for upcoming shows. The second annual Dutchland Show will be held at a new location, due to changes at Weaver's. The pavilion we used last year has been converted into a Restaurant, and is no longer available for shows. We have moved to Leesport, to a building that is larger, air conditioned, and is currently used for collector shows. We chose to stay in the summer months, as the area flea markets are always an added attraction.

The dates, Friday June 1 and Saturday June 2 , coincide with the Annual Reading Air Show, and will also insure significant traffic in the area. We have also enclosed the flyer for The Queen Cutlery Collector's Show in Titusville, PA.

Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to call or email either of us. Thanks! , we look forward to seeing you at the Show.
